1 INTRODUCTION

The Herts for Learning Multi Academy Trust is the admissions authority for the Trust's academies.

All HfL MAT academy admission policies adhere to the guidance set out in the DfE's School Admission Code 2014.

All academies in the Herts for Learning Multi Academy Trust participate in the co-ordinated admission arrangements operated by Hertfordshire County Council (HCC) for entry into reception for primary schools or Year 3 for junior schools.

2. APPLYING FOR A SCHOOL PLACE FOR SEPTEMBER 2018

Please see the admission policies on our academy websites for details of applying for places (links to the admission pages on each website can be found on our Trust-wide statutory policies and documents page).

3. APPLYING FOR A SCHOOL PLACE FOR SEPTEMBER 2019

The Herts for Learning Multi Academy Trust Board of Trustees agreed ('determined') the admission arrangements for 2019/20 for the nine academies within the Trust on 21 February 2018.

Please see the admission policies on our academy websites for details of applying for places (links to the admission pages on each website can be found on our Trust-wide statutory policies and documents page).

4. NURSERY AND IN-YEAR ADMISSIONS

Nursery admissions are managed by the academies; please see our academy websites for the process to be followed (links to these websites can be found on our Academies page).

In-year admissions (for school changes during the school year) are managed by the academies in some schools, and by Hertfordshire County Council in others; please see individual academy websites for the process to be followed (links to the admission pages on each website can be found on our Trust-wide statutory policies and documents page).
